Get 'The Dirt on Houseplants' at the Ocean County Library Toms River Branch

TOMS RIVER – Gearing up for spring planting in the yard? How about some greenery to dress up your home indoors? Let the Rutgers Master Gardeners of Ocean County give you “The Dirt on Houseplants” at the Ocean County Library Toms River Branch, 6:30 PM Tuesday, March 12.

The 90-minute seminar will introduce you to three types of houseplants and how to maintain them. Bring your questions about potting, watering, nutrition, and care.

Trained and certified through the Rutgers Cooperative Extension (RCE) of Ocean County, the volunteer Master Gardeners provide information about horticulture, 4-H youth programs, marine programs and more.

The RCE website is filled with links to resources to keep your environment robust and healthy, and information about becoming a member of the team. Master Gardeners answer lawn and garden questions through their helpline, (732) 349-1245.

Please register at <http://tinyurl.com/OclTrPlants> to attend this free program. For more information, drop by the OCL Toms River Branch, 101 Washington Street, call (732) 349-6200, or visit www.theoceancountylibrary.org/events for the full OCL program schedule.
